SENATE BILL No. 271

DIGEST OF SB 271 (Updated February 6, 2007 2:41 pm - DI 106)

Citations Affected: IC 23-14; IC 25-15; IC 30-2; IC 36-2.

Synopsis: Next of kin control of bodies in murder cases. Prohibits a person whom a coroner, after consultation with law enforcement, determines is reasonably likely to have committed murder, voluntary manslaughter, or another criminal act resulting in the death of the decedent from making certain determinations concerning the remains of the decedent. Excludes certain criminal acts involving the operation of a motor vehicle. Requires the coroner, in consultation with law enforcement, to notify a cemetery owner, a crematory authority, or a seller of prepaid funeral and burial services that the person is barred from making the determinations concerning the remains of the decedent. Specifies the order of priority among individuals permitted to authorize the interment, entombment, or inurnment of the body or cremated remains of a deceased human. Provides that, when a coroner investigates a death, the coroner may hold the remains of the decedent until the investigation is concluded. Permits the parent or adult child of a decedent to receive a full autopsy report and, with certain exceptions, prohibits the parent or adult child from publicly disclosing the contents of the full autopsy report. (The introduced version of this bill was prepared by the interim study committee on criminal justice matters.)

Effective: July 1, 2007.
